

CHS FOUNDATION DOUBLES HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP ALLOTMENT

ST PAUL, MINN. (Jan. 7, 2010) — The CHS Foundation has announced today that it will award an additional 25 $1,000 high school scholarships, for a total of 50, to high school seniors planning to study an agricultural field at a two or four-year college.

“We’re proud to expand our high school scholarship program and further our commitment to building the next generation of leaders in production, science technology and business agriculture,” says William Nelson, president, CHS Foundation.

The application deadline for high school scholarships is April 1, 2010. An independent, external committee will select recipients based on essays, transcripts and reference letters. For eligibility information and application forms, visit the University Partnerships (<http://www.chsfoundation.org/upartnerships.html>) section of the CHS Foundation website (<http://www.chsfoundation.org/>).

The CHS Foundation also offers two-year college scholarships for agricultural students in his/her first year at a two-year college and four-year university scholarships for students currently working toward an agricultural-related degree. Visit the CHS Foundation website (<http://www.chsfoundation.org/>) for application information and a list of participating universities.
