CHS Foundation hires Community Relations Specialist

ST. PAUL, MINN. (June 25, 2008) – The CHS Foundation has named Jessie Frank to the position of community relations specialist.

In her new role, Frank will manage stewardship communication with special focus on the CHS Foundation, corporate giving and volunteerism.

Frank will also provide program support for the CHS New Leader Institute and manage a variety of other projects.

Frank comes to CHS from Macy's North/Marshall Field's, where she worked as an editorial specialist and community relations coordinator. Frank wrote for several publications and served as lead writer for the company intranet site. She successfully developed and coordinated several major community relations campaigns, events and programs. Frank received her Bachelor of Arts in Communication with a minor in Psychology from Bethel University, St. Paul, Minn.
