CHS Foundation awards $50,000 to Agriculture Future of America

ST PAUL, Minn. (Aug. 4, 2008) – The CHS Foundation has contributed $50,000 to Agriculture Future of America (AFA), a national organization focused on providing leader and career development for students pursuing careers in agriculture.

“AFA’s programs are a strong fit with the CHS Foundation’s commitment to the future of agribusiness, cooperatives and rural America,” said William Nelson, president, CHS Foundation.

Since 1996, AFA (www.agfuture.org) – a Kansas City-based organization – has provided leadership and career development education to more than 4,500 college students and young professionals in agriculture from across the country. Its mission is to create partnerships that identify, encourage and support outstanding college men and women who are preparing for careers in the agriculture industry.

The CHS Foundation (www.chsfoundation.org) is the major giving entity of CHS Inc. (www.chsinc.com), a diversified energy, grains and foods Fortune 200 company committed to providing the essential resources that enrich lives. As a part of the CHS stewardship focus, the CHS Foundation is committed to investing in the future of rural America, agriculture and cooperative business through education and leadership development.
