CHS Foundation awards $25,000 to AgriSafe Network

ST PAUL, Minn. (Aug. 4, 2008) – The CHS Foundation has awarded a $25,000 grant to AgriSafe Network, an organization dedicated to preparing and supporting clinicians who serve the unique health care needs of farmers.

“AgriSafe Network’s focus on keeping farm families, children and agribusiness professionals safe is an excellent fit with our focus on building a strong future for agriculture and rural America,” said William Nelson, president, CHS Foundation.

The AgriSafe Network, founded at the University of Iowa in 1987, is a national membership organization providing health professionals with training, clinical instruments, educational resources, marketing support and updates on the most cutting-edge developments in the field of agricultural health and safety.

The CHS Foundation (www.chsfoundation.org) is the major giving entity of CHS Inc. (www.chsinc.com), a diversified energy, grains and foods Fortune 200 company committed to providing the essential resources that enrich lives. As a part of the CHS stewardship focus, the CHS Foundation is committed to investing in the future of rural America, agriculture and cooperative business through education and leadership development.
